Baltimore welcomed Fogo de Chão to the Inner Harbor in 2007. Sporting a contemporary exterior in keeping with the neighborhood, the restaurant invites guests to step into a space grounded in its locale yet reflective of its Southern Brazilian ranching roots. Teak and dark woods, together with both natural and polished stone, set the stage for an elegant and authentic dining experience.

The dining area seats 300 guests and private and semi-private dining areas are available for groups ranging from 15 to 100.

Valet parking is offered during dinner hours, and additional garage parking is located directly behind Fogo de Chão.
