Located in River North, a striking blue tower housing an authentic fogo de chão – the type of ground fire originally used in the process of cooking Brazilian meat – greets guests at our Chicago restaurant. The interior, anchored by a prominent wine cellar in the center of the dining room, presents to patrons the rich hues of Southern Brazilian soils and slate. The Brazilian culture is captured as well in the traditional kitchen table upon which the salad bar rests, and in the murals depicting scenes of the gaucho lifestyle.

The dining area seats 300 guests, and is complemented by a semi-private dining room capable of hosting up to 120 and a private dining room capable of hosting up to 60.

Valet parking is offered during lunch and dinner, and limited metered parking is available on the street. In addition, several parking garages are located throughout the area.
