Dallas' convenient neighbor to the North, Addison plays host to the original U.S. location of Fogo de Chão. Our signature blue tower containing an authentic fogo de chão graces the entrance and allows guests to experience the original process of cooking Brazilian meat over an open fire. While awaiting their table, patrons can enjoy conversation and cocktails in comfort amidst the hues of Southern Brazilian soil and slate. Once seated, a view to the vast wine cellar and grand salad bar inspires guests to enter fully into the gaucho way of life.

The dining area seats 300 guests and offers semi-private areas that can accommodate parties up to 130.

Complimentary valet parking is offered at lunch and dinner, and ample self parking is located at the rear of the restaurant.
