Fogo de Chão Houston greets guests with our signature blue tower featuring a view to an authentic fogo de chão – the type of ground fire originally used in the process of cooking Brazilian meat. Guests are welcomed into a grand dining area featuring high ceilings, natural Austin stone walls, and earth tones and artwork representing the gaucho lifestyle and culture in Southern Brazil. Wine walls housing our award winning collection complete the décor, setting the stage for an elegant and memorable dining experience.

The Houston dining room, our largest, seats 350 people. Private dining is available for up to 110 guests and semi-private areas can accommodate up to 60.

Complimentary valet parking is offered at lunch and dinner, together with self parking.
