Housed in the former Zipper Building – so named because its façade resembled a zipper – the Indianapolis location is a welcome addition in the heart of Downtown. As part of the renovation process in preparing the space for use, Fogo de Chão commissioned a 12' by 8' stained glass window, visible from the street, depicting our signature fire. Complementing this stunning work of art, the restaurant interior features select woods, natural and polished stone, and large murals all reflecting on ranch life in Southern Brazil.

The dining area seats 300 guests and private and semi-private dining areas are available for groups ranging from 18 to 115.

Valet parking is offered during dinner, and garage parking is located across the street. Limited metered parking, free after 6:00 PM, can be found on the street.
