Located in the famous Hennepin Theatre District at City Center, and within walking distance of museums, art galleries and hotels, the Minneapolis Fogo de Chão has been welcoming guests since April 2007. An authentic fogo de chão – the type of ground fire originally used in the process of cooking Brazilian meat – awes guests and passersby alike. Inside patrons are greeted by a rustic color palette together with dark woods and natural and polished stones complimenting the murals depicting Southern Brazilian ranch life.

The dining area seats 320 guests and private and semi-private dining areas are available for groups up to 100.

Valet parking is offered after 5:00pm, and additional parking is available in the City Center Ramp and other garages in the area. Metered parking is available as well, but guests are particularly encouraged to use the City Center Ramp during lunch hours.

Fogo Accepts
